

Why work for us

Who we are

Castle House is a luxury boutique hotel set in the heart of Hereford, a stone's throw away from the magnificent Hereford Cathedral and city centre.

Independently owned and run by a local Herefordshire farming family, the hotel offers 24 uniquely designed bedrooms, a beautiful waterside restaurant and bar, a luxurious dining room and a pretty garden terrace. There is also a relaxing lounge area with a roaring log fire.

We take huge pride in the provenance of the food we serve, all passionately created by our Head chef, Gabor Katona. Nothing makes us prouder than seeing our guests enjoy a meal using ingredients grown on our nearby Ballingham Hall farm. We feel privileged to be able to offer our customers a true Farm to Fork experience.

Much of the fruit, vegetables, herbs and salad leaves on our restaurant menus has been grown in our farm's extensive kitchen garden – even some of the table flowers. Some of the beef on our menus will be from our farm's pedigree herd of Hereford Cattle. Of course, the hotel's restaurant cannot be sustained by our farm alone and we have close relationships with all our trusted, local suppliers.

Service lies at the heart of what we do. From housekeeping to kitchen to front of house, we are proud of what our wonderful, hardworking team does.

We look to welcome people who like to work as part of a team and who will be as passionate about Castle House as we are.
